

PRESS RELEASE

Trescal Canada is now a member of the Canadian Association of Defense and Security Industries

Montreal, March 26, 2018.

Trescal Canada is now a member of the Canadian Association of Defense and Security Industries (CADSI).

The CADSI is an association that consists of more than 800 companies from across Canada, capable of defending Canada and Canadian interests.

Trescal Canada provides a variety of services for the test and measurement instrument market, from standard technical services (verification, calibration and repair) to on-site services as well as the sale and rental of test and measurement instruments. Trescal Montreal employs 49 people to the service of various industrial sectors, including the Aeronautic, Automotive and Defence industries.

Pierre Tétrault, President of Trescal Canada states: "I am convinced that we will be able to bring new expertise to the other members, as Trescal is the only metrology supplier with a global presence, as well as having the most experience and knowledge in the field of defense."
